HURRICANE HARVEY: Several of us Red Bud residents are ready to serve and are heading down to Beaumont Texas with our truck and cattle trailer to help with hurricane Harvey victims on Sept. 28th-30th. We are reaching out to see if anyone would like to send donations to take with us. We have been in touch with a couple people including a local church in Beaumont, TX here is what they are in desperate need of: Totes with lids, Pillows/blankets (new and used), Laundry detergent/supplies, Quarters (for laundry mat), Dry goods, Non-perishable goods, Pet food/supplies, Mops, Garbage bags, Cleaning supplies (paper towels, wash cloths, Clorox wipes etc.), Plastic gloves, Buckets, Goggles, Face mask, Bleach (lots of it), Lumber, Sheet rock/dry wall, Mud/tape, Nails/hammers and Tools. Of course any cash donations are welcome and will go straight to the church we are in contact with or for any supplies they may need why we are there. We will have a few drop off spots that include the Cutting Edge in Red Bud, Red Bud YMCA and St. John Lutheran School. For larger items you can contact me to make arrangements at: Jackie Schluter, (217)653-1411. Thank you and God's Blessings!

JUNIOR YOUTH: Junior Youth: Please let us know if you will be joining us for some apple picking and fun farm time at Millstadt Eckerts on Saturday, Sept 30th. We will leave from the school parking lot at 8:30am and come back at approximately 1 pm. We will need parent drivers. You are responsible for your own tickets. They can be purchased online at their website or on that date at Eckerts. They are $13.00. If your child wants to purchase apples or food they will need to bring extra money. We plan to go to the apple orchard immediately when we get there as a group...then everyone can enjoy the rides and shows. Please rsvp to Jennifer Roscow (618-972-5366 or mroscow@htc.net) or comment on the Junior Youth Facebook page. Please also let her know if you can drive. . <http://www.eckerts.com/millstadt-farm>
