8th Grade Trip Recap

Scan Me!

Pictured are the 26 eighth grade students of St. John's Lutheran School, the 41 adult chaperones, and Congressman Michael Bost at the U.S. Capitol building. The group recently returned from their yearly class trip April 14-21, 2023. You can see more about this trip with either the QR code(using the camera on your phone hover over the code and a link to the presentation will appear.) or type in the URL link provided. The students created a Google Presentation before the trip to learn about the places that were visited.. Upon returning the students added pictures and other information to the presentations. Mr. Bill Becker was the tour director and Mrs. Deitt Schneider assisted with the largest group that has gone on the trip in the school's history.
